GOT CORNER ON BAD EGGS

"Entertainer" Must Have Been Some-what Doubtful of His Power to Please Audience.

Apropos of Marie Corelli's new novel Butler Glaeser, the critic and essayist of New York, said at the Players' club:

"Miss Corelli is the only novelist in existence who sends no free copies of her novels to the press for review. Miss Corelli has been roasted so hard by the press that she is resolved to undergo no more of it."

"She is like the long-haired chap who walked into the general store at Quog and said:

"Do you sell stale eggs?"

"No," said the grocer with a smile, "but I've got some."

"Well, give me all you've got," said the stranger.

"The grocer, as he bundled up the eggs, laughed and said:

"I guess you're going to see 'Hamlet' tonight at the opera house."

"No," said the stranger grimly, "I'm going to play 'Hamlet' tonight at the opera house."

The United States Geological Survey reports the barytes business in this country "on the boom." Maybe it is, but with the tiff mines hereabouts closed down, that it is true. The report is based on the output for the year 1914, which shows a gain over the previous year. The average price per ton paid for barytes at the mines that year was $2.98.

It will be some time before the roads hereabouts get good as the result of the work that is now being done on them. The grading work has left them in poor condition for driving. However, after the grading and a few months traffic over them, we will begin to get some real benefit from the work.

Girard S. Parson, formerly connected with the St. Joseph Lead Co., and who resides at the Parsons mansion at Riverside, has filed suit against his wife, Flora Bowman Parsons, of St. Louis for divorce. He declares in his petition that Mrs. Parsons loved another man. The case will be tried at Hillsboro, before Judge Dearing, at the next term of circuit court there.

Among the graduates at the State Normal, Cape Girardeau, we note the name of Miss Charlotte Martin. Miss Martin is the youngest daughter of the late Wm. Martin, of Irondale. She graduated from Elmwood Seminary, Farmington; post-graduate work at Howard-Payne, Fayette, and now has a life certificate to teach. She has been making her home while at the Cape, with a sister, Mrs. C. A. Eaton.

The case of Grover Lawson, vs. State of Missouri, for carrying concealed weapons, came to trial on the 20th, ult., but as evidence was insufficient to prove the charge, the prosecuting attorney recommended he be found guilty of peace disturbance. The defendant entered a plea of guilty and was fined accordingly and having secured payment for fine and costs, was released.—Leadwood items in Bonnet Terre Register.

John Johnson, colored, who drives one of the delivery wagons for the Potosi Mill and Elevator Co., while on a trip to the south end of the county one day last week, lost his pocket-book containing seventy dollars. On the chance of finding it he went over the route again next day and had the good luck to discover it lying in the road between Caledonia and Belgrade, untouched. The day following John put his money in the bank, where he regards it safer than in his pocket.

One Rev. J. T. Ford has been conducting a rip-roaring revival meeting at Pilot Knob the past week. He is said to be an eloquent pleader. The interest was intense and the lambs were hurrying into the fold, when lo, Sheriff Blue appeared on the scene one day with a summons for Ford notifying him that his wife, who lives in Dent County, had instituted proceedings for a divorce, charging Ford with many wrongs and gross misconduct. The meeting closed. Ford claims to be a disciple of the Church of Christ.—Ironton Register.

Bloodhounds Trained True.

George Beeler's pool room was robbed again last Thursday night. The thief gained entrance by forcing the rear door and secured some ten or eleven dollars in change from the cash register drawer. George sent for the Poplar Bluff blood hounds with the hope that they might trail the robber and disclose his identity. The dogs came on the evening train Friday. At first they seemed unable to take up the trail, but after supper they were tried again and soon began to move. They followed the spoor for about two miles out on the Caledonia road, and while they did not actually "tree," they led to what was considered a pretty good clue as to the thief's habit. This resulted Saturday in the arrest of Claude Wilson, a youth of 14 years, who is now in jail, charged with burglary and larceny. Wilson, we are told, has confessed having had a hand in the robbery, and implicates another youth in it. The latter has dusted out from these parts to avoid arrest, but the authorities are looking for him.

Judge Dearing Hears

Important Suit.

Something new has happened in Piedmont. The Reynolds county circuit court is in session at the city hall here this week, with Judge E. M. Dearing presiding in his usual capable manner, and with official stenographer Claude Jarvis, Sheriff R. L. Parks and Clerk D. C. Howell, in attendance. The suit on trial is B. F. Hackworth, vs. the Missouri Southern Railway Company for the recovery of about $12,000 alleged freight overcharges on ties. Mr. Hackworth is represented by Attorney S. L. Clark, of Van Buren, a prominent lawyer. The railroad company's interests are defended by Attorney J. B. Daniel, whom railroad lawyers of the state recognize to be one of the best versed men in Missouri upon the principles involved in recent rate legislation and litigation. There are 804 counts in Mr. Hackworth's claim. He asserts that the company charged him 5½ cents for hauling ties to Leeper when the maximum statutory rate is 2 cents. Various points are involved in the company's defense, but these may be summed up in the general claim by the Missouri Southern that the maximum rate fixed by the state would be, in its case, confiscatory and in violation of the National Constitution and the Missouri Bill of Rights, therefore void as to the Missouri Southern.—Piedmont Banner.

The Supreme Court last Wednesday handed down a decision in the case of J. Arnold Farrar vs. the Potosi Lead, Barytes and Mercantile Co., appealed from judgment for defendant dismissing case in the circuit court here, the Supreme Court affirming the judgment as per stipulation.

Religious Fanatics Whirl

Like Dervishes.

Mesdames A. Terriere, H. Stevenson and Etta Mosinaof St. Louis, who claim to be Pentecostal Saints, have created considerable comment through a series of evangelistic meetings at the Free Will Baptist church here and also at Esther.

They claim to have received the baptism of the Holy Ghost, and their services reflect the wildest form of fanaticism. They work themselves up into a fit of hysteria which finds vent in a gibberish, which they call "tongues." In addition, while under what they term "the power," their bodies become subject to spasmodic jerks or twitches which are accompanied by facial contortions that give an expression of intense suffering.

Also, if the spirit so moves them, they dance, and Mrs. Terriere, is a past-master in the art of whirling. The most enthusiastic Dervish would be outlasted by her in a contest of this kind. In fact, Mrs. Terriere's enthusiasm was given such free rein in St. Louis on one occasion that it led to her arrest. After being held for some time in the observation ward of the City Hospital she was discharged as harmless.

They glory in what they term the persecution of those who scoff and seem delighted when their ridiculous antics raise a laugh. This gives them an opportunity to pose as martyrs and they loudly proclaim the scoffing is merely the fulfillment of the scriptures.—Lead-Bell News.

Ex-Sheriff J. W. Collins of Troutt was in town last Saturday and said that his crop prospects were so good at present that he was encouraged to pay the printer his dues, which he proceeded to do at once. Others might follow his lead.

Heagler, has made rapid progress during the last six months and its work on this occasion was marked with fine expression and technique. The audience was not as large as it might have been, but all in attendance thoroughly enjoyed the performance.

THE DETROIT MALE QUARTETTE COMING WITH NEW PROGRAM

A glance at these faces ought to convince you in a second that these boys know how to entertain. Doesn't it make you want to hear them sing, just to look at their pictures?

They're a happy lot. Been singing together four or five years; have established a reputation among Chautauquas and Lyceums the country over and their voices blend and harmonize perfectly.

The Detroit Male Quartette are going to sing some new songs this year. They thought enough of the newness of the program, you see, to give it a name that suggests well enough how new it is.

The Detroiters were out over the same circuit they are making this summer a year ago, and scored so big they had to go back to the same towns

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

again. That explains why it is that their program is so absolutely new. A song that has been longer than six months on their repertoire won't be used; everything older than that is barred.

There is a great demand these days to have everything new: fashions and everything of that kind. The Detroiters have planned their program to meet this popular demand. They have been working some time to get ready for this and they're in fine trim.

Hear them on the third day of the Chautauqua.
